SUPERVISORS HOLD ADJOURNED MEETING

The Board of Supervisors met in adjourned session Monday, February 9th.

It was ordered that the clerk communicate with the telephone company to the effect that the phone in the Supervisors' committee room is to be used by the Exposition Commission and that the same be so designated in the company's directory.

MacBain stated that Mr. A. C. G. Hahn had resigned as one of the County Mosquito Commission. He moved that the resignation be accepted and that Homer P. Brown of Atherton be appointed in his stead. The motion was seconded by Francis and carried.

The consideration of the bids for grading the county road from Tunitas to San Gregorio was taken up. District Attorney Swart stated that there was a disposition on the part of some of the interested parties along the right of way, particularly the lessees, to ask exorbitant prices from the county. He therefore recommended that the bids for grading the road that were before the board for consideration be rejected and that no further estimates be called for until the matter is definitely settled. It was so ordered on motion of MacBain, seconded by Casey.

The bids for grading the road from Belmont to the Spring Valley lake were taken up. Surveyor Neuman stated that all of the rights of way had been secured except through the Pullman property. This he felt sure would be granted within a few days. The consent of the four bidders being given, it was ordered by the chairman that the opening of the bids be deferred one week.

Surveyor Neuman stated that the people of Granada were desirous that the route of the highway at that place be moved back from the beach, for which concession they would agree to do the grading and at the same time give access to the beach. The change would obviate the necessity of some expensive bridge work.

Francis stated that the change requested was an important one and before consenting to it he would prefer that the entire board, the advisory commission and the surveyor personally view the road. It was so ordered, on motion of Francis, seconded by Casey, and Saturday next was the date fixed for the inspection.

The acceptance of plans and specifications for the road from Uncle Tom's Cabin to South San Francisco was postponed until the next meeting at the request of Casey.

The claim of Tax Collector A. McSweeney for $107.15 for expenses in collecting taxes was allowed out of the General fund.

On the suggestion of the District Attorney the order appointing viewers of the road at Tunitas was rescinded, on motion of Francis, seconded by Casey, and the following viewers appointed, all of whom are taxpayers: William Deeney, John Souza and Surveyor Neuman.

Frank Martini of the Fourth township was called before the board and an ineffectual attempt was made to come to terms with him for the privilege of taking sixteen acres of land leased by him, for the county road. It was then ordered that the District Attorney at once begin proceedings to condemn the right of way.

James Willison, the contractor to whom was awarded the contract to grade the road from Colma to Edgemar, consented to a postponement of his work until the rights of way are definitely settled, his check to be returned to him and he to give a bond as a guarantee that he will enter into contract when the rights of way are secured.

The following resolution relative to the use of telephones was introduced by Francis and adopted on his motion, seconded by MacBain:

Whereas, it has come to the notice of this Board of Supervisors that various claims for private use on account of telephones are being charged against the county, and

Whereas, it is difficult to check all the claims for long distance telephone service for telephoning communications held over county telephones,

Be it therefore resolved and ordered, that from and after March 1st, 1914, all claims for toll service over county telephones be charged against and paid by the officials who have charge of the respective telephones, and that said officials then present their verified and itemized claims, setting forth the person with whom the communication was had, the nature of the official business, the date and the amount of service, which claims will thereupon be allowed by the Board of Supervisors in regular form.

Plans and specifications for a concrete bridge at Woodside and a box culvert on the Canyada road, were adopted and the clerk directed to publish notices calling for bids for constructing the same.

On motion of Casey, seconded by Brown, Supervisor MacBain was authorized to install five corrugated iron culverts in the road leading from Searsville to Menlo Park.

It was ordered that a deed of easement from Eric and Helen Alford for right of way for a change

In the location of a bridge on the road leading from La Honda to San Gregorio be accepted and ordered filed and the claim of the grantors for $150 for said right of way was allowed out of the General fund.

The following communication from the Surveyor was read and ordered filed.

To the Honorable Board of Supervisors, San Mateo County, Cal.—Gentlemen: My object in presenting my resignation at the previous meeting, which you have already denied, was for the reason that at the present time there was no work started in the construction of the roads of the county, and under the present conditions, I had not thought of running for the office at the next election.

I therefore thought it would be better to change now, if there was to be a change, so that a new man could readily take over the work.

In view of the fact, the board having denied my resignation and the sentiment of the public seems to be that I go on with the work to the end of the term, I therefore state that I will carry on the work and that in starting it I shall attempt to stay with the job until all construction is completed, but in view of this, I will request the board to kindly make other arrangements to procuring the rights of way, as this matter in the past has taken a great amount of my time, and I do not feel that I can give the time necessary under the present conditions.

Yours very respectfully, J. V. Neuman.

District Attorney Swart stated that in the future he would give the acquisition of rights of way his personal attention.

A final conference was held with Frank Martini with the result that he consented to accept $300 for the land leased by him to be used for a right of way for the county road.

PUBLIC REQUESTED TO AID IN CHURCH WORK.

Last year a number of Stanford men came to Redwood City and had a week-end visit, working in connection with the various churches among the young men and boys. This year the effort will not be confined to the churches particularly but will be more or less among the boys of the schools. The men from Stanford will come here on a Friday night, stay over Saturday and Sunday. There will be talks and meetings Friday night, Saturday and Sunday afternoon, with the regular church services Sunday morning and evening. All people of Redwood who are interested in boys, regardless of sect or denomination are asked to co-operate in this particular activity.

The cleanliness of Califene

In this age of sanitation, when foods of all kinds are sold in packages to insure cleanliness, you should be as particular about one thing as another.

CALIFENE goes to you, fresh from the government inspected factory in sealed tins which protect the contents from all odors, and the dust, to which all goods sold in bulk are exposed.

CALIFENE does the work of fresh butter, at a much lower cost. When you try CALIFENE you'll buy it and stay by it just as thousands of women do all over California.

CITY OFFICIAL PAPER

REFORM THE GRAND JURY

The prompt order for the dismissal of the accusation against County Auditor Underhill by Judge Buck, made on the motion of District Attorney Swart, presents another strong argument for the necessity of a very material modification of the laws governing the powers as well as the scope of the duties of grand juries. If the usefulness of this adjunct to our method of legal procedure is to be saved from the contempt of the public, whom originally it seems to have been designed to serve and protect, some means must be found of so limiting its authority as to at least direct that it must at all times work under the guidance of proper legal advice. Nor, in all justice, should it be permitted to hale any citizen into court to answer to grave charges without at least giving the accused party reasonable opportunity of either presenting a defense or of making explanation of his side of facts under investigation.

That in presenting the accusation against Mr. Underhill, who for many years has filled his present official position to the evident satisfaction of his constituents, the grand jury was not acting under the advice of the District Attorney, who should certainly be the legal director of a body of this character, is plainly evident from a perusal of the facts and points of law pointed out to the court in the motion for dismissal. Not only is it shown in the opinion of the District Attorney there was no warrant in law for the finding of the jury, but it is also made clearly evident that the accusation was not based upon even a slight foundation of facts such as would be required for its sustaining in a court of law.

That the members of the grand jury were actuated by honest motives no one need question. The very character of the people composing the inquisitorial body, their general intelligence as well as their standing in the community, would preclude the suspicion that their action was taken with a view to the deliberate injury of any person.

Yet, this, does not alter the fact that a serious injury has been done to a respected citizen and official of the county, an injury which is almost, if not quite, beyond repair. Not only has Mr. Underhill been made to suffer in public reputation, one of the most valued of good citizen's possessions, but he has been seriously, and perhaps irreparably, injured in health. To a man of not over robust constitution, coming as did this accusation, just following convalescence from a serious illness, the worry and mental anguish caused has left an effect from which he may never fully recover. Certainly Mr. Underhill is justly entitled to, and will undoubtedly receive, the sympathy of the entire public.

SHORTIDGE CAMPAIGN POPULAR.

Although it is a little early to prognosticate as to the outcome of the Senatorial contest, yet it is encouraging to the friends of Samuel M. Shortridge to learn that the announcement of his candidacy is received with great enthusiasm in every portion of the State. Shortridge clubs are being organized in many localities to urge and work for his election. His appearance in San Diego the other day aroused much enthusiasm. On every side Mr. Shortridge was greeted as "Senator Shortridge." No other name could be heard in connection with the senatorship. It is generally conceded that Mr. Shortridge will have no opponent in his own party at the primary election in August and as the Republicans are registering at the rate of two to one, more than the other political parties, it would seem that Mr. Shortridge has a brilliant chance to shine in the United States Senate as the representative of California.

Mr. Shortridge is possessed of the quality of mind which makes for constructive statesmanship. His knowledge of public men and public questions, his readiness of reasoning, facility of expression and accuracy of discernment distinguish him as being eminently qualified for the senatorial office. Moreover he is tireless in his energy, unimpeachable in his personal integrity and uncompromising in his attitude toward all infractions of the public rectitude.

King's Daughters' Food Sale.

"I expect to pass through this life but once, if therefore, there is any kindness I can show or any good thing I may do, let me do it now. Let me not defer or neglect it, for I shall not pass this way again." Taking this as their motto the King's Daughters stand ready to give help when needed. A call has come to them and they are asking each and every kind-hearted person to patronize a benefit food sale which they will hold on Saturday of this week, February 14th, at 1:30 o'clock in the Democrat office building, 35 Broadway, (through the kindness of Mr. Swift). Any who desire to make contributions may do so that afternoon or telephone to Mrs. A. M. Porter, 244-R, or Miss Thelma Knox, 203-J.

CHARGES AGAINST AUDITOR ADMITTED TO BE GROUNDELESS

Accusation is Dismissed on Motion of District Attorney Swart.

The accusation filed against Auditor Underhill by the late grand jury was dismissed in the Superior Court by Judge Buck on motion of District Attorney Franklin Swart last Wednesday. Mr. Underhill was accused by the inquisitorial body with neglect in keeping his books. The auditor had retained Attorney Hoff Cook to defend him and was prepared to make a bitter fight. He was to have attacked the legality of the grand jury, contending that it was not a legal body inasmuch as its membership was principally composed of women. In his motion for dismissal, the District Attorney presented the following statement to the court:

"The District Attorney at this time moves the Court to dismiss the accusation in the above entitled cause. We make this motion consistent with our policy of dismissing a charge where the facts or the law do not merit a conviction. Any other policy is unfair both to defendant and taxpayer."

The accusation on file charges the Auditor with neglect to keep a cash book, ledger or any account current with the Treasurer for a period of three months prior to the date of the accusation. Section 4094 of the Political Code of California provides that "the Auditor must keep accounts current with the Treasurer." No special form of account current is prescribed by law. No provision is anywhere made that the Auditor must keep a ledger or cash book. Under the law as it exists, therefore, but one issue of fact is raised by the accusation. Has the Auditor wilfully neglected to keep accounts current with the Treasurer for a period of three months?

To define "Current Accounts" we quote the language of various courts:

"A current account, as used in the statute is a running, passing, connected series."

"A current account is one in which there has not been a balance agreed on and struck between the parties."

"The expression 'account current' in the mercantile sense, is an account which contains items of debit and credit between the parties, from which the balance due one or the other is or can be ascertained."

"Until balance is struck, a mutual account is open and current."

In preparing the evidence for the trial of the charge herein, we have found that the Auditor's office had, during the months mentioned in the accusation, a record of all moneys received by the Treasurer's office during that period in the form of receipt book stubs and monthly Treasurer's reports. There was likewise a full record of the disbursements of the Auditor in the register of demands, stubs in the warrant books, register of school warrants and the Treasurer's book of expenditures filed with the Auditor on the first Monday of each month.

While the cash book and ledger had not been posted for a period of something like two or three months, the Auditor's office did, during all this period, have an "account current" with the Treasurer. The Auditor's office had "an account which contained items of debit and credit, from which a balance could be ascertained." In fact the balance had actually been ascertained, and written up on January 14th, preceding the 16th of January on which the accusation was voted, from the records which were in the Auditor's office at all times.

Unquestionably the Grand Jury had good reason to expect that the law should prescribe a full and uniform system of accounts in all counties of the State, but under the law as it exists, the accusation cannot be sustained and the people are duly bound to move to dismiss the accusation.

Society Speeder Pays Fine.

Dr. J. A. McEnery of Burlingame, London and Salt Lake City, was arrested by Traffic Officer James Logan on Monday for exceeding the speed limit on the State highway. He was going at the rate of sixty-five miles an hour and was chased for seven miles by the officer before he was caught. The doctor appeared before Judge Lampkin on Tuesday and pleaded guilty and was fined $50 which he promptly paid. The doctor came into prominence some time ago when he challenged Percy Selby to walk to Del Monte. The match was made and the two society men marathoned to the famous resort. The doctor won the wager of $500. Mr. Selby only got as far as Gilroy when his feet failed him and he returned to Burlingame. McEnery went the whole distance, making splendid time. The event was a big society affair and created much interest at that time.

"Where Are the Dead?"

Mr. C. W. Gerdes of the U. S. Army service of San Francisco will speak at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon at Foresters' hall on the subject, "Where are the Dead." An ex-soldier, a globe-trotter, a lecturer of coast-wide reputation, and a most ardent defender of the Bible, Mr. Gerdes has chosen a subject of vital importance to every family. He claims his answer is derived entirely from the scriptures, but unlike the message of the creeds, he has a message of "glad tidings of great joy to all people." He also assures us it is the result of the life, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. This is the first of a series of four lectures on successive Sunday afternoons. All of the speakers are business men of the bay cities congregations of the International Bible Students Association. These men follow their regular vocations during the week and on Sundays voluntarily devote their time and means in giving a glad message to everyone, as freely as it was given by Jesus and His apostles; a laymen's movement, thoroughly undenominational, with one object only in view, to draw the people back to the Bible as the source of all religious truth. Seats free and no collection.

She will also have charge of the office of the commission at the courthouse. Mr. Hahn, who will devote much time to the work of getting up the display for the fair, will be at the office every forenoon.

Mrs. Clara Harris of Table Grove, Illinois, is here on a short visit to her girlhood friend, Mrs. James E. Ralston of Redwood Highlands. She is delighted with Redwood City.

Judge Buck made an order yesterday allowing Attorney Arthur H. Reddington the sum of $250 for legal services rendered the Populists in representing them in the settlement of the account of the trustees appointed under the will of the late John T. Doyle to hold in trust certain sums of money left by Mr. Doyle's grandchildren by him.

L. S. Reading, San Mateo accountant, who examined the accounts of the trustees was allowed an additional sum of $100, making the total amount received by him for his work of $350.

LOCAL MASONIC LODGE INSTALLS NEW OFFICERS

In the presence of a notable gathering of members of the fraternity, the officers of Redwood City Lodge No. 168, F. & A. M., were installed last Saturday evening. Not only was there a splendid attendance of the members of Redwood City Lodge, but goodly delegations were present from the lodges of San Mateo, Burlingame, South San Francisco and Palo Alto.

J. E. Ensor, the retiring master of the lodge, conducted the impressive ceremonies, assisted by Past Master E. F. Chilcott as master of ceremonies. Under their direction the following officers were installed for the Masonic year: E. H. V. Hoenck, worshipful master; Geo. W. McNulty, senior warden; W. H. Kelson, junior warden; L. P. Behrens, treasurer; F. K. Towne, secretary; Rev. David M. Crabtree, chaplain; O. M. Carrington, senior deacon; B. C. Zimmerman, junior deacon; J. J. Rogers, marshal; Geo. H. Leary, steward; C. A. Jacobus, steward; John W. Glendon, Tyler.

Following the ceremonies, the retiring Master, J. E. Ensor, was presented with a handsome Past Master's Jewel, suitably engraved, as an attestation of the appreciation of the members of the Lodge of the splendid services rendered during the year, the gift being presented by Past Master Roy W. Cloud. During the year Mr. Ensor has conferred the Master's Degree upon eleven candidates, and as an evidence of their appreciation, these initiates presented him with a handsome Past Master's apron, Stuart H. Frank, one of the members, making the presentation.

An especially interesting feature of the occasion was the presentation to P. P. Chamberlain, who for ten years served the Lodge as its Master, in addition to numerous other official positions, of a handsomely engraved history of his Masonic record, which covers a period of 47 years. Past Master Frank K. Towne acting as the spokesman for the members of the Lodge, too much affected by this evidence of fraternal regard, to give voice to his feelings, Mr. Chamberlain was compelled to receive the gift in silence.

At the conclusion of the meeting the members and their guests were entertained at a banquet in the large hall on the lower floor, served by waiter P. W. Glendon. An interesting feature of the banquet, as well as an entertaining addition to the installation ceremonies was the splendid vocal selections rendered by the Botkin quartette of San Francisco.

Ray Griffin a Candidate.

This will announce to the citizens of Redwood City that I am to be a candidate for election to the office of City Clerk at the municipal election April 13, 1914. I am making my campaign entirely free from any pre-election agreements with any one. Firstly, because such agreements are illegal and will invalidate an election. Secondly, I intend, if elected, to do the work myself, believing I can, as is chiefly clerical in nature. If I did not believe I could do the work myself I would not enter the campaign.

This statement is made because of an article which appeared in a recent issue of the Democrat, claiming it was understood that I had agreed to appoint a certain person my deputy in case I was elected. As far as I understand, I would not have authority to make such appointment, even if I so desired, as the power to appoint deputies and assistants is conferred entirely in the Board of Trustees.

LOCAL NEWS NOTES.

Those desiring to vote at the coming town election will have to register by March 13. Don't delay, register today.

The Women of Woodcraft will give a card party at Odd Fellows hall next Thursday evening, the 19th inst.

Miss Frances Taylor, the pretty daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Taylor of San Francisco, spent the week-end with friends in this city.

Harold Parker, eldest son of Rev. J. Parker, will take the competitive examination for Annapolis on February 17, in San Francisco. Young Parker is a bright boy and is especially skilled in mathematics and leads his class, the senior, in all subjects. His friends are confident that he will be the representative of this district, and bring credit to himself and his school.

The California Bodies of Scottish Rite Masonry held a ladies night at Albert Pike Memorial Temple, San Francisco, last Saturday, at which the play, "My Friend From India" was given. Mrs. J. W. Eva of this city took the part of the leading lady and Walter K. Fletcher appeared in the role of butler.

These parts with those of the other actors were well sustained. The production furnished no end of entertainment to the large audience present.

State Bank Examiner H. R. Erker, unannounced, dropped into the San Mateo County Savings Bank Monday morning to make his regular examination, and after completing his two days' task was frank to say he had no comments to make, other than praise for the very satisfactory condition in which he found the bank. He also praised L. P. Behrens, President, and the management for their earnest endeavor to carry out the State law as it pertains to savings banks, thus securing the patrons from any possible loss.

Patrons of the Bell theater will be treated to another extra special program for next Monday and Tuesday evenings when the great five-reel naval drama, "The Victory" will be shown. These films were specially loaned from authority of Secretary of the Navy Daniels, with a view of showing the naval strength of this country, and strongly appeals to our patriotic spirit. On the same program will be a great comedy reel. There will also be a strong program for Sunday evening which will include a Keystone comedy at popular prices.

LOCAL NEWS NOTES OF MENLO PARK

Interesting Paragraphs of Personal News Gathered About Town.

A. J. Marcus and family will move down from the city on the first of the month to occupy their beautiful home on Oak Grove avenue for the summer.

Two Italian vegetable men of Mountain View have rented quarters for an up to date fruit and vegetable store. They will also carry a large stock of confectionery and novelties.

August Berner, the University Heights capitalist, has purchased the Deist tract near Mayfield which will improve by constructing macadamized roads and sinking artesian wells. The tract may be subdivided some time later.

We learn with deep regret of the death in San Francisco some time ago of little Frank Grady, who was killed in an automobile accident. The little fellow was one of the Kennedy Indians, who journeyed through this part of the state last summer and was the mascot at the show given in Menlo Park by that club last summer.

The explosion of an oil stove in one of the bedrooms of the residence of Thomas Cochran on the El Camino Real last Monday caused an incipient blaze that for a time threatened the destruction of the whole building. The fire was put out, however, before much damage was done. The insurance adjuster was down from the city yesterday and paid the full amount of the loss.

S. Spaulding of Los Angeles has purchased the George A. Batchelder home at Atherton and will be here in a few days to improve the property. It was first thought that Mr. Payne had purchased the place but the negotiations that were pending for the sale some time ago were dropped. Mr. Spaulding is connected with the E. H. Rollins & Sons, bond buyers of San Francisco.

R. S. Spaulding, known here as old Sleuth, died at Arcata, Humboldt county, recently at the age of 79 years. He was elected constable of Palo Alto in 1896 and it was during his official career that he earned the name of Old Sleuth on account of his skill in running down criminals. He was a brother of Joe Spaulding of Mayfield. Mr. Spaulding located at Pescadero in 1857 and engaged in the manufacture of shingles. He was quite wealthy in the early days but lost most of his money in bad speculations.

The beautiful R. D. Girvin home at Atherton was the scene of a delightful dinner party Thursday evening. The parlors and dining rooms were gayly decked in choice blooms and rare plants. About thirty guests were present, many of whom were from out of town. The motif of the dinner were Miss Reid and Mr. Chapin Tubbs of Burlingame. The engagement of Miss Lee Girvin, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Girvin, and Lloyd Tevis was announced at the dinner. Tevis is a son of W. S. Tevis and grandson of the late Lloyd Tevis.

The children of the St. Joseph school gave a most interesting entertainment in honor of the feast day of Rev. Mother Hoben. The school children and their teachers were assembled in the auditorium, where the exercises were held. A number of songs were sung, and the following children recited pieces: Margaret O'Farrell, Beth Kelly, Margaret Harrington, Catherine Albert, Lorraine Michel. Mrs. Adeline Weeden read the address of welcome. Rev. Mother Hoben spoke to the children, telling them the meaning of the feast day and closed by granting them a holiday.

February 20th, a week from yesterday, is the date set for hearing the most sensational case Menlo Park has been responsible for in years. We have promised for the last two weeks to give the details of the story before it came up for hearing. Our promise has provoked a great deal of speculation and we regret it has proved a bugaboo to some. Perhaps with all our vaunted shrewdness in unearthing the details of this story, other stories lying ready to hand have escaped our attention. Was it Eugene Field, the delightful poet of primitive minds, who wrote "the bugaboo may catch you if you don't watch out?" The "complicated affair" we have in hand is the story of a young married man whose home being made miserable by too much mother-in-law disguises himself and seeks distraction in the night life of a great city.

Quite accidentally he meets with a young actress in distress and quite so innocently succors her. In doing so he unknowingly leaves a clue to his identity in her hands. She thus locates him and follows him up. The mother-in-law, like all orthodox mothers-in-law is right there when trouble is around and with a whoop this particular mother-in-law proceeds to do things to that young man that would make any gentle reader weep copiously in sympathy. If we were to detail them (Editor's note: Carry with you several handkerchiefs the night you go to see this affair for copious tears would ruin the floor in the hall. That would not do, the floor will be needed by the young people after the complicated affair has been settled.) It takes a forgiving wife, with the look of a martyr upon her face, that's the way a wife always forgives, a nice spick and span, right out of a New York fashion house, malsaproud maid, that kind of a maid? Oh, that's the funniest kind you ever saw or heard of and two "genuine frens and a butler to untangle the mixup that young man, with the help of his

HONOR MEMORY OF ABRAHAM LINCOLN

Pupils of High School Listen to Eloquent Tribute to Life Work of Martyr President.

John D. Gish, the well-known attorney delivered an eloquent address to the student body of the high school Thursday afternoon in the assembly hall of the high school building on the life and works of the martyr president, Abraham Lincoln. Before the speech the students rendered a few patriotic songs that were well received. Mr. Gish's address was well timed, well worded and eloquently delivered. It is in part as follows:

Young ladies and gentlemen of the Redwood City high school: Carlyle says, "his Sartor Resartus that hero-worship is an attribute common to all mankind, being confined to no particular time, or place, or race of men. What determines the hero, is the point of view of his people, and the hero is largely the product of the time in which he lives. Some have been renowned for physical strength, some for skill in arms, some for intellectual superiority, and others again for their greatness of heart. Thus we have such names as Charlemagne and Richard the Lion Hearted and Henry of Navarre and William of Orange.

If we were celebrating the anniversary of the birth of any of these, a cheer and a rouse, a tossing of hats and a drinking of toasts might be sufficient for our purpose. But we differ somewhat from the people whose heroes I have mentioned. It is said that when an Irishman is overburdened with enthusiasm he feels he must fight, an Italian similarly afflicted is impelled to sing, but an American in the same predicament is mightily moved to make a speech. If there is any one thing in our national history that justifies this speech impelling enthusiasm it is the life story of Abraham Lincoln.

It is often declared that the American character as a type has not yet been found. Two hundred and fifty years seems a short time when compared to the centuries through which Normans and Saxons and Dane have been fused into the English race. But short as has been our history we too have our traditions, and the names are counted, something to remember when great deeds are told. Abraham Lincoln outlines the Plan of the Union and ennobles common blood forevermore.

Lincoln is himself in the way of becoming a tradition, but there are still among us men and women whose memories go back to days when he carried the nation's burdens. They remember how the world never failing judgment, his tender sympathy, and the unquerable spirit that disaster could not disturb nor victory too much elate.

In Hardin county, Kentucky, February 12th, 1809, Abraham Lincoln was born. The domestic surroundings under which the babe was ushered into the world were wretched in the extreme. For he was born into that social grade known in the South as the "poor whites." His parents were ignorant and shiftless and of a roving disposition so that his boyhood was spent partly in Kentucky, partly in Indiana, and partly in Illinois. The entire systematic schooling of his life was less than one year, his employment was at the roughest and heaviest work of a frontier settlement. What few books he could borrow or buy in that sparsely settled community he read with avidity, but his chief study was in mankind itself. For his love of mankind was thorough and deep and all embracing, and the knowledge of the human heart that he gained through this early contact with men was the chief factor in the successful termination of the war of the Rebellion.

The preeminently striking feature of Lincoln's characteristic that is noteworthy in his early days and which grew more and more prominent as the years went by, was the extraordinary degree to which he always appeared to be in close and sympathetic touch with the people that formed his constituency. First his constituency was only the population of his own county.

And even with all these to help out, it takes just the longest time, so that the whole thing lasts about an hour and a half and all during that time you are crying or laughing or beating the dust out of the floor with your feet or standing on the chairs and yelling your delight like a lot of school-boys when the home team is winning. The play—sure it's a play, aren't you wise yet?—ran for six weeks, every night, in one of the big vaudeville houses in Chicago and they had to call the police to stop the riot of the delighted audience and close the house for two weeks after that in order to put in new furniture and a new floor. Don't you young people the floor of the Hall of the Nativity—yes, that's where the play is to be staged—will be ready for you immediately after the show. The names of the people involved in this complicated affair who are prominent in Menlo Park are Arthur and Mrs. Cunningham; John Doe, Daisy Mac'dand, Joshua Gillbrand, Josiah Nonderscript and the mother-in-law. Who is she? Why Mrs. Cunningham's mother of course. You don't know any of them? Sure you do. Wait until you get your program at the door of the hall on the night of the show. Summed up, here is the whole story: "A Complicated Affair" a three act comedy to be staged in the Hall of the Nativity on the evening of Friday, Feb. 20th, at 8:15 o'clock.

DOINGS ABOUT THE COUNTY OFFICES

Matters of General Interest to Litigants Called from the Public Records.

The papers on appeal from the justice court of the Fifth township in the case of W. J. Debenedetti, against C. V. Thompson, have been received and filed in the county clerk's office. The case will be set for trial shortly.

New Building Contracts.

The following builder's contracts were filed in the office of the county recorder during the week: C. C. Morehouse agrees to do the artificial stone work for the C. Frederick Kohl new residence at Easton for $9750.

Fred J. Mauer agrees to erect for the Warranty Investment Co., in 90 days, a five-room bungalow at "Blossom Heath Manor," Beresford for $2550.

The Van Sant-Houghton Company agrees to complete the interior work finishing "trim" in the conservatory and bed-rooms of the Geo. A. Pope residence at Burlingame by March 21, 1914, for $2047.

New Actions in Superior Court.

R. S. K. Macmillan has brought suit in the Superior Court against the Crocker Estate Company to compel the latter to execute a deed to lots 29 and 30 in block 19, Crocker Tract, to him. The complaint recites the fact that in 1907 an agreement was entered into between the parties whereby plaintiff was to pay a monthly installment on the property until the full amount was paid. Plaintiff claims to have done this and now wants a deed of the frontier settlement, then it widened to include the State of Illinois, then it extended to the population of the entire North, and such had come to be this popular appreciation of the life story of a great quality that at the time of his death it was believed that it would be able to make itself one with all the heterogeneous, discordant and antagonistic elements which then composed the very disunited United States.

During all the stress and strain of the Civil War he read the pulse of public opinion as accurately as a skilled physician records the pulse of his fever patient. Through his youth he worked irregularly as farm laborer, flatboatman, lumberman, storekeeper and surveyor, finally studying law and drifting into politics. He represented his Assembly District in the State Legislature and his Congressional District in Congress, but was not widely known outside his own constituency until the famous debates with Douglas in 1858.

Stephen A. Douglas, known as the "little giant" of politics, a man of unusual ability, had been the United States Senator for Illinois, elected by the Democratic party. In his campaign to succeed himself in 1858 Abraham Lincoln was his opponent. Lincoln challenged Douglas to a series of joint debates in the whole country, and although Lincoln's party was defeated at the polls his personal prestige grew enormously, and the clearness of his statements, the boldness of his position upon vital topics, and the high moral ground he took in these debates, singled him out as the logical candidate for the presidency in 1860.

He was the only man in his party at that time that dared to express his convictions and in his voice there was a ring of prophecy like that of John the Baptist crying in the wilderness when he said, "A house divided against itself cannot stand. I believe this government cannot endure permanently half free and half slave. I do not expect the Union to be dissolved. I do not expect the house to fall, but I do expect that it shall cease to be divided."

His nomination for the presidency came unexpectedly to the greater part of the nation and even after his election he was in great measure an unknown quantity. Never was a man more misunderstood than he was during the first few months of his incumbency. The Abolitionists reviled him as under the domination of the slave-holders and the South reviled him as an Abolitionist and even his friends could not penetrate the wisdom of his inaction. "He was willing to go slowly if in the right direction, willing sometimes to stop, but he would not go back, and he would not go wrong. He was willing to wait. He knew that the event was not waiting and that fate was not the fool of chance."

As the cares of State grew upon him, the thoughtful, faraway expression seemed deeper and more impressive than ever; but his singular temperament armed him with a responsibility and in the face of duty. His was the genius of common sense, of common sense in action, of common sense enriched by experience and unobscured by fear. His was a grand simplicity of faith, a profound, instinctive confidence that by patient, honest thinking it would be possible to know the right road, and by earnest enduring courage, to follow it.

At this time let us remember that to be an American citizen is a serious thing. Wherever there is a wrong, we who honor Abraham Lincoln are morally pledged to fight against it. Wherever there is a fight trying to be heard, we are bound to fight for it. "Here now the true American, whatever creed he may profess, may well turn to Abraham Lincoln for sure guidance and wisest counsel. When the sky is clouded, let us think of him. When the oracles are mute, let us take courage from his serene faith."

HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS WILL PUBLISH JOURNAL.

Last year the students of the high school got out a very attractive paper which they call the Sequoia. This paper is made possible by the co-operation of the local merchants of Redwood City. Many of these merchants consider the help they give as a donation. It may be that the advertising value is not a profitable one but the support of the school in such a character is commendable and each merchant should feel that while he may not get full value from his advertising in the school paper, yet he is contributing to a cause which is not only good for the school itself but contributes to the general reputation of the town. It is hoped that those who are approached will feel willing to co-operate in placing advertising in the school paper this spring.

SEQUOIA STUDENTS HAVE CLASS ENTERTAINMENT

Last Friday night at the high school occurred the first one of the "class nights." The seniors had charge of the program. Maude Moore and Jennie Larroy each sang solos. There was a few numbers by the Victrola and an illustrated lecture by Mr. McCrea and Miss Bowles, using the new school moving-machine apparatus. The important feature of the evening, however, was a descriptive talk given by Mr. Cloud, in which he related incidents and impressions of his recent trip to Salt Lake City and return by way of Yellowstone National Park. Mr. Cloud has the happy faculty of seeing things aright and being able to picture them before an audience, and his talk was delightful and interesting.

BOYS ENTHUSIASTIC OVER THE SCOUT MOVEMENT

The Boy Scout movement, inaugurated last Saturday, gives every promise of being a success. The boys are still sending in their names for enrollment and reading the literature with much interest. The success of a movement of this kind, which is very national in its scope, depends upon the efficiency of the scout master. A man who has been sympathetic for boys and is willing to make sacrifices for them will accomplish much. Mr. H. H. Sears, the newly appointed scout master, has intimated that he has a number of events in store for the young scouts, such as hikes to the hills, a trip on the bay and a visit to the exposition grounds. Such personally conducted excursions will bring both pleasure and profit.

Resolutions of Condolence.

At the meeting, held last evening by Court Madrone, No. 158, Foresters of America, the following resolutions were adopted:

Whereas our brother, Frederick Rohrbach, departed this life February 1st after having been a member of our court for twelve years, therefore be it

Resolved, That the officers and members of Court Madrone, No. 158, F. of A. extend to the relatives and friends of our brother, our heartfelt sympathy, and be it further—

Resolved, That as a token of sorrow, and a sign of respect and esteem for our departed brother, our charter be draped in mourning for thirty days, and that a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the records of our court.

Arrested As Speeder.

Dr. W. A. McNery, Hillsborough's noted clubman and biker, was arrested for automobile speeding at Menlo Park by Motorcycle Officer James Logan Sunday. There were five women passengers. The McNery car was on El Camino Real, traveling north. Tuesday, McNery appeared before Justice Lampkin and was fined $50.

The Joshes Mix Up.

Helen Josh filed a divorce complaint in San Francisco against John Josh in which she alleges that her husband tore up her new hat, abused her whenever he came home to dinner and found his meals not ready and otherwise misconducted himself. Josh is a blacksmith and some months ago was arrested for bigamy. Mrs. Josh, who lives at 755 J Pine street, alleges that when she married him at Redwood City, March 2, 1912, he had another wife in the person of Mrs. Elizabeth Josh.

MRS. W. W. LAKE

Tells Others How to Get Strong and Well.

Mrs. W. W. Lake of Aberdeen, Miss., says: "The gripe had left me in a weak, run-down condition from which I suffered for some time. I tried different remedies but nothing seemed to do me any good until I took Vinol, from which I received great benefit. My cough is almost entirely gone and I am strong and well again, and I am glad to recommend Vinol to others who suffer as I did."

Mrs. Lake's recovery was due to the combined action of the medicinal elements extracted from cod's livers—combined with the blood making and strength creating properties of tonic iron, which are contained in Vinol, and her cough disappeared as a natural result.

We guarantee that Vinol will do all we claim and will pay back your money if Vinol does not satisfy you.
